FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

"Security Forces Squadron members return from Operations Enduring Freedom/Iraqi Freedom"

DATE: May 19, 2003

NUMBER: 03-05-14

YOUNGSTOWN AIR RESERVE STATION, OHIO – Ten Air Force reservists assigned to the 910th Security Forces Squadron are scheduled to return here tomorrow at approximately 11 a.m. on a 910th Airlift Wing C-130 aircraft. The personnel have been deployed to the 410th Aerospace Expeditionary Wing Security Forces Squadron, Shaheed Mwafaq AB, Jordan.

The group left Youngstown February 24 and has served 85 days deployed in support of Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

Shaheed Mwafaq AB has been home to several squadrons of U.S. Air Force F-16s and was a transient base for just about every type of Air Force, Marine, and Navy aircraft used in the war with Iraq at one time or another. During the war the base ran 24-hour flight operations for strike bombing and ground support operations to include the attack on Baghdad and other cities in northern Iraq.
